Chicago delivers innovative restaurants, world-class attractions, decadent nightspots, and hip boutiques that will keep you going from morning until night until morning again.

April's Best Event: Art Chicago

The Lowdown: A longtime cultural tradition in Chicago, this international expo of modern and contemporary art attracts an elite group of collectors, curators, and guests from around the world. Special exhibits include the works of one artist or thematic group. There are also educational programs and lectures by noted experts. Overall, it's an excellent chance to see a lot of art, and the opening night preview party brings out an ultra-stylish set for drinks, gourmet nibbles, and an exclusive first view of the exhibition.

When: Last weekend in April, Opening night party the Thursday before; one-day admission is $15.

Where: The Merchandise Mart
